ATHLETICS

Champions! Wildcats Earn SWAC Conference Title in First Year

The Wildcats baseball team (36-16, 30-10 in conference) took three of four games from Southern Idaho last weekend to win the Scenic West Athletic Conference in the team's first year of play. Western won both games Friday 5-1 and 1-0, and then the captured the first game Saturday 4-3 to clinch the title. WNCC will host the conference tournament that starts Wednesday at John L. Harvey Field. The Wildcats will play the winner of the Eastern Utah-Salt Lake game at 5 p.m. Thursday. Ticket prices will be $5/day for WNCC students, faculty and staff with college ID cards, so come out and support your Wildcats! General admission: $10/day or $25 for a tournament pass; $5/day for seniors age 60 and older; $5/day for youth 6-18; free for children 5 and under.

Schedule and scores: <http://www.wncc.edu/athletics/baseball/schedule.php>

Soccer Coach Hillary Arthur, Dr. Carol Lucey, and Dean of Students Dan Neverett congratulate WNCC soccer players on their achievements in a special ceremony between baseball games Friday.

Former Major League baseball player Charley Kerfeld laughs with the audience at last Wednesday's athletics fund-raiser at the Peppermill Hotel in Reno. All proceeds went to the rodeo, soccer and baseball programs.
